

Backend Web Architecture

Backend systems implement RESTful APIs and database indexing strategies for high-performance data retrieval.

Authentication mechanisms use JWT tokens and OAuth protocols to secure microservices communication.

Scalable web servers rely on asynchronous processing and load-balanced infrastructure deployment.